

Gender Method: doing gender archaeology in practice

AGE online workshop as part of the European Archaeology Days

Friday 16 June 2023 (13:00-16:00 CET)

The aim of the workshop is to explore how we “do” gender archaeology. Contributions are 10-minute conversational pieces based on one or very few slides that will discuss and debate the methods behind gender archaeology.

Join Zoom Meeting

<https://liverpool-ac-uk.zoom.us/j/98962988893?pwd=VzdGSEhMSmRjMGJDUmhZUUVtVTdiQT09>

Meeting ID: 989 6298 8893 Passcode: gb@!1H&

Programme

Katharina Rebay-Salisbury (Katharina.rebay-salisbury@univie.ac.at): Gender and sex estimation – new methods and old problems

Penny Bickle and Rachel Pope (rachel.pope@liverpool.ac.uk): Prioritising variability in gendered datasets: Challenging normative accounts of prehistoric gender

Catherine Frieman (catherine.frieman@anu.edu.au): The F-word: doing feminist archaeology during the aDNA revolution

Uroš Matić (speaker, Uros.Matic@oeaw.ac.at), Jared Carballo Pérez, Sarah Schrader, Rachael Hall: Engendering body techniques of child carrying in Late Bronze Age North-Eastern Africa and West Asia

Teresa Campos (teresa.campos@ehu.eus): Are women in the archaeological record: approach to historical discourses and archaeological museums

Ana Galan-Lopez, Ana Abrunhosa and Joana Valdez-Tullett (jvaldeztullett@gmail.com): Combined experiences: different places, same problems

Octavio Torres Gomariz (octavio.torres@ua.es): Doing gender archaeology in university practice: experiences from the University of Barcelona

